26/16 Forum - Development projects 2016

Forum aims to contribute to national processes and initiatives in the field of global health and health research. Forum will in 2016 support minor scientific activities related to the topics «Innovation in global health» and «Refugees – migration». The purpose is to stimulate researchers /students to activities within these areas, and to make the topics more visible. (Attachment 1: A announcement of the call)
